Description

A good North country oak dresser of architectural form. This is a particularly fine example: The rack with bold dentilled cornice; pillasters which open to reveal cupboards; spice drawers. The base with four more pillasters; arched fielded panel doors and three pairs of bracket feet. Also attractive from the side ~ the base with two fielded panels to each end. Height 83" Width across the base 71 ¾" Maximum width across the cornice 77 ¾" Maximum depth 20 ¾" Provenance: from my father's, Roger Bichard, lifetime collection formerly at seend House.
