Description

A good quality Victorian mahogany side table dating from the mid to late 19th century. It stands on turned tapering legs and has two drawers, each with turned knobs. It also has a raised shaped gallery around the top surface. It is in good condition with a lovely rich patina. There are signs of age and use, some small marks and minor knocks but no major damages and it displays well. One knob has been changed but it is a good match to the rest and isn't detrimental. The drawers open well and are generally tidy inside. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photographs so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
