Description

This is a beautiful antique late Victorian mahogany extending dining table by the renowned Victorian cabinet makers, Edwards and Roberts, and circa 1880 in date. This amazing table can seat sixteen people in comfort and has been hand-crafted from beautiful solid flame mahogany. The runners are stamped Edwards & Roberts and the table bears an ivorine plaque that states Edwards & Roberts 148-160 Wardour Street London. The beautiful flame mahogany top is oval shaped and has six leaves which can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion by a special winding mechanism. The leaves can be easily removed and stored away when not required. The table is raised on five hand carved turned and reeded tapering legs that terminate in their original brass and porcelain cup castors. The chairs shown in the photographs are not included in the price but are available if required, we have various sets of chairs in stock that would suit this table. This stunning dining table will stand out in your dining or conference room and will definitely become a key piece in your furnishing collection.
