Description

This is a fabulous antique Victorian flame mahogany extending dining table, circa 1860 in date. The table has three original leaves, can comfortably seat ten and it has been hand-crafted from solid flame mahogany which has a beautiful grain and colour. The table is almost round when the leaves are removed but becomes oval when they are added. The three leaves can be added or removed as required to suit the occasion by a special winding mechanism. The table is raised on turned and fluted tapering legs that terminate in brass cap castors which makes it easy to move when required. This stunning table will stand out in your living or conference room and will definitely become a key piece in your furnishing collection. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
