

SA1009758

Art Deco Sterling Silver Grapefruit Spoons - 1937

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1009758*Date of manufacture: 1930

Description

A heavy and stylish set of six antique George VI sterling silver grapefruit spoons which have been designed in the Art Deco style with plain handles and good sized bowls perfectly shaped for eating grapefruit. These silver spoons have been made to an extremely high standard and sit neatly in a fitted box. This set has the advantage of the original silver handled knife, which is an added bonus, and it also sits comfortably in the box. These spoons remain in excellent condition. Length of spoon: 14 cms (5.5") Width of bowl: 2.7 cms (1.1") Length of knife: 19.5 cms (7.7") Weight (without the knife): 5.6 troy ounces (175 grams) It was hallmarked in Sheffield for 1937 by Roberts & Belk. Complimentary postage is included within the price of these grapefruit spoons. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us. Please visit www.marshantiquesilver.com for a larger selection of items.

Internal Ref: 6174

Seller Details

S & A Marsh

London United Kingdom

Tel: 07773 644605

International Tel: +44 7773 644605