Description

Here we have a wonderful rare 17th century William and Mary cushion framed Walnut and inlaid mirror. As you can see the frame has super colour and patina. The mirror has the original plate with a Pine frame and Oak rear panel. The front is stunning with an outer bead moulding and cushion frame with glorious corner panels. The panels are beautifully inlaid with a mixture of woods including Ebony, Holly and box. There are also stained woods in green. There is an inner moulding around the original plate. A super example with very good provenance in retail condition. The dimensions are approx 62 cm high 57 cm wide 9 cm deep.
