Description

William IV mahogany dumb waiter This William IV mahogany dumb waiter was made circa 1830-1840. Made of solid mahogany it is a rare small size and so can fit in so many places around your home. Having 3 surfaces and fitted one long drawer that has the original turned knob pull handles. The dumb waiter has fine turned supports with the very desirable feature of the upturned tulip carvings. This can used as a server in the dining room or to sit a tv and music system on. Obviously, it can be put to many other uses including for office use, either way it will make for a very useful and attractive piece in your home or office. 71cms wide 28ins 45cms deep 17 3/4ins 100cms high 39 1/2ins Delivery This UK mainland FREE Other destinations please contact us, and we will get a quote. We use a professional Removal company to transport our precious items and do not entrust them to usual parcel services. Therefore, delivery may be 7 -10 days, but it is worth the wait of course. On occasions customers have been disappointed to miss an item as they e-mailed their enquiry instead of phoning, I would recommend that if you wish to get the piece, please call rather than e-mail.
