Description

A very decorative sectioned wall mirror in the Baroque style. Probably Italian, there is a recessed central mirror plate surrounded by further mirrored plates, all within a gilded ormolu frame which is decorated all over with flora. The outer frame is made from gesso and is coloured to resemble hardwood. This has been a difficult piece to photograph, and it's important to add that there is no damage to any of the mirrors apart from some very small age marks to a couple of them. This is a beautiful piece which could embellish many types of interior. We can discuss delivery both here in UK and overseas. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card via telephone.
