Description

A truly wonderful William and Mary Oak and Walnut chest on original stand, completely original including brass drop handles, engraved back plates, locks and escutcheons. . Of a small size, perfectly proportioned, and with a fantastic colour and patina. The walnut inlays and crossbanding to the drawer fronts are particularly lovely. . Made by a skilled cabinet maker in around 1690 and untouched by time. . Because it was so well made, carefully looked after, and always ideally suited to its purpose, it has remained in original condition and it is no small miracle that it is still here today exactly as it was 325 years ago. . Strongly recommended, a beautiful, original and superbly proportioned little chest on stand. . Dimensions are: . Height is 41.5 inches, width is 41 inches and depth is 23.25 inches. . Height of stand is 15.25 inches. . For metric please multiply by 2.5.
