Description

Gents WW1 silver Dominex wrist watch. The watch has a good quality Swiss movement, 15-jewel, 2 adjustments, which is working nicely. The movement is signed Dominex, a brand name registered by Ariste Calame Fils of Le Locle and Geneva in 1915, the year this particular watch was made. There are two empty retaining screw holes within the movement... these screws are not required in this instance because the movement is designed to be held in place by the shaped case. The watch measures 33mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the fixed wire lugs. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside the case back for London 1915 with a sponsor's mark for George Stockwell. From 1 June 1907, Stockwells acted as assay agents, facilitating the import into Britain of foreign gold and silver items which had to be assayed and hallmarked in a UK assay office before being released for retail. The front of the case is in good condition. The back has some unevenness. The lens is in good condition, just a light cloud where an old sizing label has been. The dial is in good condition with original hands (original paint has been removed over the years). There is a hairline to edg...
