

SA1010443

Fine 19th Century Chinese
Dragon Gold Thread
Embroidered Fireside Screen
c.1890

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA1010443

Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

Beautifully embroidered by hand in gold thread on black silk, this superb pair of 19th century Chinese panels are set within a mahogany framed fire screen – the frame is aesthetic movement in design and dates from the late 19th Century, the panels are in my view a little earlier. . The four dragons are each unique and there is superb fluidity in every movement, each chasing a flaming pearl. . Perfectly preserved for more than a century, the gold bright and untarnished and without damage. . These are beautiful works of art set within an elegantly turned solid mahogany frame. . . Dimensions are: . Max width when unfolded is 41 inches and height is 30 inches. . When folded the width is 20.5 inches. . For metric please multiply by 2.5

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266