Description

A very atmospheric and idyllic view of a Southern fishing port, painted most likely in Italy or France. Resolutely post-impressionist, the landscape is imbued with the light of the Mediterranean coast. We see a church and a lighthouse on the shore, while in the foreground fishermen are busy working on the boats. Dating from the late 19th or very early 20th Century, our oil on canvas has been laid on to hardboard and restored. Measuring 54 x 65 cm, the overall size in a large and heavy frame is 74 x 86 cm.
