Description

A large Edwardian pine dresser, with 7 drawers (each with a brass drop handle), and a cupboard door in the base, a nice thick chunky work surface, and an open back rack, with a vertical central partition, and shelves above 7 drawers. In 'pre-restoration', fairly rustic condition, stripped and waxed some time ago, could do with a bit of a clean up and re-waxing, but please contact me to discuss. I have put a 'buy it now' price of £900 on the dresser. A guide price for a thorough clean up (maybe putting it through a stripping process), full restoration, and re-waxing would be around £1250. Height: 82.5", work surface height: 35", width: 81", base depth: 20"
