Description

3 small early Victorian copper measures. The smallest one is of the usual shape and is 1/4 gill of dovetailed construction. The other two are a matching pair but are of very unusual (mug) type of design, made of heavy grade copper. They are 1/2 gill and 1 1/2 gill sizes. I don't think I have ever seen a 1 1/2 gill before. All three are in good clean condition. CIRCA; 1850
