Description

This early 20th-century oil painting by Danish artist Christian Asmussen (1873-1940) depicts a girl playing the piano within a beautiful interior setting. The quiet lull of a sunlit room lifted gently by the rise and fall of classical music. Playing from memory, she's well-versed. The piano is adorned with elegant blue and white ceramics. Four small oils hang neatly on the wall. A mirror, perhaps in the Deco style, reflects a slim vase. It's a celebration of quiet family life and she's in her element. Asmussen spent the early part of his career decorating the finest theatres in Europe. He has a keen eye for design and clearly appreciated the decor on display here. Note the careful brushwork to capture the various ornaments. Given the consistent nature of the artwork, perhaps it's his own home. Signed/dated lower right and held in its original frame. Medium: Oil on canvas Overall size: 23½" x 28½" / 60cm x 72cm Year of creation: c. 1935 Condition: Artwork presents well. Frame with some light wear.
