Description

A good example of an early 19th Century Georgian knife box. It is made from mahogany with an attractive double serpentine shape. The interior has been re-fitted to serve as a letter or stationery box with long removable compartments made with a mahogany frame. The box comes with its original working key. It is in good condition for its age. It has a lovely colour and grain and the inside is clean and tidy. There are signs of wear and age, some minor marks and knocks, a few old repairs and the hinges have been replaced at some point but overall it displays well. The best description comes from the photographs so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £15
