Description

Brass and silvered bowl Urn shaped jardinière of Neo-Classical design, dating possibly Victorian or Regency period. This fine example has a silver-plated fluted top section that shows hardly any wear and is fitted with an inner copper liner. Looks to be a registration stamp mark to the rim. The Urn stands on 4 ball feet and is 26cm tall, with the top section diameter of 15cm. Just a beautiful thing that stands out matter where placed.
