Description

A fine quality quarter sawn oak 30 hour longcase clock by Samuel Hill of Sheffield, circa 1780. The well proportioned slender case, constructed of beautifully figured quarter sawn oak, of excellent original colour and patination. The boxed swan-neck pediment hood with the original brass finial, beneath having freestanding turned pillars terminating with brass capitals. The long shaped top trunk door flanked by corresponding quarter turned columns and wooden capitals over the paneled box base, standing on shaped bracket feet. Brass strap hinges and the original lock to the trunk door. The circular silvered and engraved brass dial with bold Roman numerals chapter ring and an outer minute circle with Arabic numerals at five minute intervals, signed to the centre Sam Hill Sheffield, surrounded by decorative swag and floral engraving. The fine quality and original fully restored movement of 30 hour duration united by four knopped pillars, with anchor escapement and striking the hours on a single bell. All of our clock movements are restored by our horologist who works exclusively for us. Our horologist is a Fellow of the British Horological Institute (FBHI), having 35 ...
