Description

This large, early 20th C. Victorian Cupboard is constructed from Pitch Pine. It has adjustable shelving providing plenty of storage space, making it an ideal piece of furniture for a free standing kitchen or in an entrance hall to hide away boots, shoes, dog leads etc. It would suit both a country style or a more contemporary home. It is heavy and in a good solid condition with wear etc. from years of use and it is missing a small piece of cornice on the top right hand side.
