Description

A beautiful pair of silver gilt with blue and white enamel ear clips in a stylish mid century design, very much in demand at present. The floral design is precisely detailed in engine-turned white guilloché enamel with a royal blue centre, within a silver gilt setting. Designed by renowned Norwegian jeweller David Andersen, the earrings are marked D A Norway Sterling 925S on the backs. These are the epitome of sophisticated mid century design, extremely wearable and very much in vogue. In super pre-owned condition, no damage to the enamel and clips work well. Period: Circa 1950's. Measurements: Diameter: 1.9 cm Total combined weight: 7.5 grams All weights and measurements are approximate.
