

SA1011893

Elegant and Fine George III Library Wing Chair c. 1760

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1011893*Date of manufacture: Georgian

Description

A wonderfully elegant and high quality Georgian winged library or desk chair with a solid mahogany frame and retaining its original brass casters. . The chair has been newly upholstered in heavyweight 'Escape Shantaung' old gold upholstery fabric by Philip Kaufmann – an extremely expensive and thickly woven fabric with a high percentage of silk which gives it a wonderful sheen, long life and a high martindale. . The chair frame is original, solid and sound and has beautiful lines and proportions. . Very well padded and of a good size, the chair is supremely comfortable. . The seat is wide and deep and the back has a gentle supportive rake. . Such a beautiful chair made by skilled hands in c. 1760 and of beautifully linear, elegant and eye catching form. . . Dimensions are: . 29 inches wide, 34 inches deep and 38 inches high. . Floor to seat is 18 inches. . For metric please multiply by 2.5

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266