Description

A charming little washstand from the Aesthetic Movement Circa 1880/1890. Would also work well as a hall or console table. Finished in an aubergine paint which is now beautifully worn. Lovely brass handles, brass towel rails to each side. Handsome architectural inspired pediment back flanked by turned finials and inset with pretty coloured tiles. Tiled top with single drawer and cupboard below. Shelves to the sides. What's not to love!?
