Description

An early Victorian elm captain's style desk chair with thick concave circular seat and a wrap-around backrest supported by bobbin turned uprights. The piece is raised on four thick bobbin turned splayed legs united by a bobbin turned cross stretcher, with the position of the legs making for an interesting aesthetic and a remarkably practical seating position. Very good condition, structurally all in good order with some superb aged colour and patina throughout. English, mid 19th century. H: 79.5 W: 60 D: 60 cm Seat height: 45.5 cm
