Description

A good example of a 19th century Wellington chest. It has 7 graduated drawers and stands on a plinth base. I'm afraid there is no key. A good looking and useful piece that gives height to a room without being an imposing piece. Ideal for narrow spaces as it is only 33.5cm deep. I took the photos outside in the bright sunlight because I find that gives the best definition but there are photos taken inside the shop which will reflect it's colour indoors
