SoldItem Reference: SA101233*Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

A rare George II walnut armchair of Chippendale style with generously proportioned seat and arms. This chair was probably made during the early years of Chippendale's influence after his publication of the "Director" in 1755, as it not only shows his influence on the prevailing style but still carries the echoes of an earlier age of walnut. A splendid chair to while away the hours, because not only does it look stunning, it is comfortable too. Dimensions: 28" width (71cm) 17" depth (43cm) 36.5" height (93cm) 16.25" seat height (41cm) Please visit our website at www.salisburyantiquescentre.com to view our entire stock or for further information please contact Salisbury Antiques Centre on 01722 410634.
