Description

Victorian burr walnut Wellington chest This Victorian burr walnut Wellington chest was made in a top-quality workshop circa 1870. The Wellington chest has a fitted secretaire drawer as well as the usual graduated drawers. The cabinetmaker used fine quality burr walnut of a beautiful colour and figuring. To one side is the locking bar, that when locked secures all the drawers, therefore you only need one key. You will have 5 drawers plus the secretaire that opens by pressing release buttons, this reveals the fitted interior of pigeonholes and drawers and with the red leather surface, Due to its lovely size the Wellington chest will fit in most places around your home. Imagine the interest and wonder this fine Victorian Wellington chest will generate with your family and friends as you proudly show it off.
