Description

This is a beautiful Antique Cake Knife with a Sterling Silver Blade. It would be perfect for cutting a wedding cake or bakery items. It comes in its original presentation box and would be a fantastic gift, particularly for a couple getting married or as a housewarming present. It was made by CW Fletcher & Son and it was Hallmarked in Sheffield in 1920. The blade is made of shiny Sterling Silver with the maker's mark and Hallmarks on one side. It has a slightly pointy end and a serrated design to the top of the blade. The handle is beautifully smooth Mother of Pearl which shows all the lovely colours Pearl has. It's in good condition and has obviously been treasured and looked after. The end of the blade has a very slight kink to the end but it wouldn't affect its use. The presentation box has some scuffs but the hinge and clasp work well. The knife measures 20.8cm in length (just under 8 1/4 inches).
