Description

A lovely antique extending table dating from the early 20th century. The oak top stands on large bulbous carved ends joined by a central stretcher. It has two extra leaves which pull out from the ends of the table, expanding it from a 4-seater up to an 8-seater. It is a very sturdy table and is in good condition for its age. The oak has a lovely warm patina. There are signs of age and use, some minor surface marks and light knocks but no major damages and overall it displays very well. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use.
