Description

For your consideration is this fabulously stylish 1930's Art Deco cocktail cabinet. This cabinet dates to the 1930's and has all the bells and whistles you want from a cocktail cabinet. The upper interior has a mirrored mirrored backing. The lower section of the cabinet opens to reveal a very generously sized shelving space for glasses and bottles. This area will take full size liquor bottles and has a fretted out differing sized circles to allow for different sized bottles. If all this wasn't enough the cabinet itself is veneered in the most glorious walnut, with book paged figured veneers in a warm mid tone colouring, the coloured bakelite handles finish this piece to perfection. We've had the whole cabinet fully restored and so comes to you in great condition. Offered with FREE UK mainland delivery
