Description

Hi I have for sale a very rare 1890s English double fusee grandfather clock in stunning condition for the age striking the hours on a bell with a stunning early movement fully restored and in perfect working order. 99% of grandfather clocks are weight driven this purpose built example is very rare having a thick plated double fusee movement in the most stunning thick heavy but miniature in size grandfather clock case in solid flame mahogany with lots of inlay. The Case The case is in beautiful mahogany with stringing inlay and stands 180cm high x 37cm wide with a depth of 26cm it is in very good original condition very shiny has had a lot of wax over the years and very well-looked after, with a thick glass front door. The clock stands on wooden-shaped feet. The Dial The dial is in good original condition with a silvered chapter ring signed by the retailer Maple & Co of London with the Roman numerals and still retains the fine-blued hands. The Movement The movement is an eight-day double fusee time and strike which strikes the hours on a large tuned bell to the top. the movement was fully restored with new springs two months ago so keeping good time over eight days via the...
