Description

A truly fabulous pair of George III silver asparagus tongs hallmarked London 1792 Thomas Nash II. These tongs are a good heavy gauge silver and feel nice and sturdy to handle. They are in plain polished silver with the addition of some classic Georgian styling in the form of a reeded border all around and a simple motif decorating the handle. A beautiful wave pattern provides grip to the inner edge of the tongs, and the end of the handle is engraved with an heraldic bird. The tongs are fitted with a central support for tension enabling movement.

 Hallmarks: clear hallmarks are visible in inside the handle for the London Assay office with a date mark for 1792, along with the Lion Passant indicating fine sterling silver and the silver maker's mark for Thomas Nash II.

 A stunning pair of tongs which make for truly fine dining, and would make a wonderful wedding gift.

Condition: In super antique condition. Measurements: Length: 24 cm Width at widest part: 5.3 cm Weight: 147 grams Weights and measurements are approximate.
