Description

Superb Regency mahogany linen press which dismantles into three sections allowing easy transportation in and around the house. The beautifully inlaid doors open to reveal four mahogany faced linen slides. Additional storage can be found in the base section with two small and two long graduated drawers, each having dovetail joints and embossed oval ring handles. Like all antique furniture there are some imperfections (some sun bleaching at sides, shown in pictures) however this is a very solid piece of furniture, covered in beautiful mahogany and flame mahogany veneers that is not only useful but will look fabulous where ever it is placed.
