Description

Rarely found and highly sought-after ice bucket in English Oak in the form of a coopered bucket bound with silverplated banding with quality screwed construction. The interior is lucky enough to have retained it's original creamware liner, and without damage, quite miraculous. There is a silver plated drainer which fits in the bottom and allows water to drain to the bottom. The underside is fully marked for the well renowned silversmith, Atkin Brothers. A really super and very usable piece of antique barware in excellent condition. Rim diameter: 5 1/4", stands 5" excluding swing handle or 8" to top of handle.
