Description

A beautiful oil on board depicting a bird's nest and primrose, signed 'Fanny W. Goodwin' (fl. 1840-1850). The work is well executed and extremely striking. There is a real depth to the subject giving it an almost three-dimensional appearance. There are small touches throughout such as the ladybird to the lower left that make this work particularly charming. There are some very small areas of paint loss, most notably near the signature to the lower right. The work is housed in a gilt frame which remains in a very good condition throughout.
