Description

Early Victorian Mahogany 2 Leaf Extending Dining Table. An extending dining table is a versatile piece of furniture designed to accommodate varying numbers of people during mealtime or other gatherings. This type of table features a mechanism that allows it to expand or contract, changing its size as needed. This Dining Table stands upon Unusual Turned and Fluted Legs with Ball Feet and Inset Castors. The Top of the Legs being of a Carved Form. The Table Extends by way of a Telescopic Pullout Action to Accept up to 2 Extra Leaves Giving a Seating Capacity for up to 10 People. The primary advantage of an extending dining table is its flexibility in seating capacity. When fully extended, it can comfortably accommodate more guests, making it ideal for larger gatherings. When not extended, it's more compact and suitable for smaller everyday use. Presented in good condition. Size: Height 29" (74cm) Width closed 54" (137cm) Width fully extended 95" (241cm) Depth 42" (107cm) Looking for the perfect dining table to enhance your home decor? Look no further!
