Description

A very lovely set of twelve Edwardian teaspoons with matching sugar tongs. Simply styled with a beaded border to the front and back of the handles, matched on the tongs, these are in a classic design which still looks fresh and very usable. They come in a very nice red velvet and silk lined case which folds out in two halves and fastens with a metal catch. Super quality, these were made by Walker and Hall of Sheffield and bear clear hallmarks on each item for the Sheffield Assay Office, dated 1900. A lovely gift item for a wedding or silver anniversary. Condition - the spoons and tongs are in great antique condition. There is slight wear to a small area of the interior of the case, commensurate with age, mentioned for accuracy. Please see photos for details. Combined weight of silver 129 grams Case measures 27cm x 18 cm
