Description

Fine quality early C20th brass-framed two-tier etagere with nacre-shell inlaid panel top. The square tubular brass frame with ribbed bulbous finials and raised on brass castors. The tiers each with a parchment coloured craquele type two-tone surface with gilded lines. The upper tier with a central panel of cut nacre-shell or 'mother o'pearl' inlaid in a fan style design beneath a removable glass panel. The sides with moulded profile brass edging. Probably by the esteemed dealership of Mallett of Bond St., London, a company who produced high quality decorative and practical brass-framed etageres and stands of this type to compliment their stock of fine antique furniture and accessories. In excellent original condition, the brass having achieved an atmospheric aged colour and patination. H 22" W 12" D 12" England c.1920
