Description

A very beautiful Edwardian aquamarine & pearl drop style pendant in a warm gold. The setting is finely made as a stylised symmetrical flower with a central circular cut aquamarine and six seed pearls spaced around in a petal formation. An additional aquamarine adorns the top of the triangular pendant setting, which is articulated where it joins the floral motif, meaning it moulds nicely around the neckline. The aquamarine gemstones are a wonderful pale blue, and it hangs from a simple fine link chain, marked 9ct to the setting & 9ct to the clasp. This is a fabulous antique necklace and in super condition. Would make a wonderful gift for any occasion.
