Description

A very good set of six 18th Century hand coloured engravings of game in their original frames. Engraved and sold by Carington Bowles, of 69 St Paul's Church Yard, London. They depict game, which includes rabbits, hares, grey plovers, a lark, chaffinches, woodcock, snipe, partridges, duck, mallard, quails, yellow hammer, bullfinches, deer and pheasant. They are in good country house condition. The frames were originally gilded and sometime in the 19th Century, over painted. Circa 1780 - 1790. Further detailed images on our website.
