Description

An exceptional Art Deco Dressing table and matching stool by Bath Cabinet Makers and attributed to their top designer, Charles A. Richter. Made from rich satinwood and macassar ebony veneers and the quality silvered handles and hinges, designed by the company itself. A central drawer and one to each side, with a triptych bevelled mirror above. The reference number stamped to the back, the BCM's disc to the internal central door. The dressing table is accompanied with its matching rectangular satinwood stool. This forms part of a seven piece bedroom suite. All our furniture is professionally polished and restored where necessary. Our restorer has over 40 years of furniture restoration experience including 15 years living at Windsor Castle whilst working for the Royal household, so comes highly recommended!
