Description

This wonderful vintage snake collar consists of a silky sterling silver snake chain that slithers fluidly toward the head and tail which cross over to symbolise eternal love. It's decorated with glistening, metallic marcasites across the front and green paste eyes. This necklace looks striking around the neck and is held together by a secure box clasp with added safety catch. The necklace also has a full set of hallmarks on the back of the head indicating it was imported and assayed in London in 1965. We do also have the matching bracelet for sale, please send us a message if you are interested in the set.
