Description

This wonderful vintage snake bracelet consists of a silky sterling silver snake chain that slithers fluidly toward the head and tail which cross over to symbolise eternal love. The snake is decorated with glistening, metallic marcasites across the top and blue paste eyes. The bracelet looks beautiful around the wrist and is held together by a secure box clasp with added safety catch. There are a full set of hallmarks on the back of the head indicating it was imported and assayed in London in 1963. We also have the matching necklace for sale, please send us a message if you are interested in the set.
