Description

A simply stunning pair of French Bergere Arm Chairs that are extremely comfortable. Lovely frames that still retain some of their original paint finish but now having a great look being slightly shabby. The frames are strong and sturdy and the upholstery is in very good condition (note one yellow based and one green) of course you may wish to re upholster both in your own fabric. The internal upholstered is in excellent condition as are the strings and webbing. All in all a delightful pair of chairs that are very good quality indeed and they don't come much better than these.
