Description

Aside the appearance and super rarity of this marvellous Art Deco clock on first viewing, one can't be distracted away from the condition as well, which for it's 90 odd years is nothing less than amazing. Impressively large and heavy this is a high quality and highly collectible clock. Features a solid marble base, two chrome pillars which frame a glass dial with transfer numerals. We've had this Art Deco beauty fully serviced by an horologist and so comes to you in full working order. These clocks are becoming increasingly hard to source. This one definitely won't disappoint. FREE UK mainland delivery History Jaeger-LeCoultre (French pronunciation is a Swiss luxury watch and clock manufacturer based in Le Sentier, Switzerland, that dates back to the first half of the 19th century, founded by Antoine LeCoultre in 1833. The brand has hundreds of inventions and over a thousand calibres (movements) to its name, including the world's smallest calibre, one of the world's most complicated wristwatches and a timepiece of near-perpetual movement.
