Description

Grand Early Victorian Mahogany Wind-out Dining Table. A fantastic grand solid Mahogany large wind out table. We bring to you a marvellous example of an early Victorian solid Mahogany wind out table of substantial size believed to be made around C1840. The table has 4 beautifully turned and tulip carved substantial mahogany legs which stands on its original impressive and unusual Huxley's Patent double collar polished brass castors which make this table effortlessly glide. This lovely table is in almost flawless condition with a lovely highly glazed French polished finish and deep Mahogany colour. This table is complete with its 2 additional leaves giving this table a small overall form when the leaves are not in use or a very large table when both are in and the medium between. This table can manage to accommodate 4-10 chairs and be used as a formal dining room or even a breakfast table. This table has been recently fully restored and French polished. The winding mechanism has been greased and is working smoothly is strong and without any sagging whilst maintaining a flat top when extended (its original winding handle is included). The table is solid with no joint...
