Description

This fine Indian silver lidded container is unmarked but tested. It is finely decorated with raised and chased dancing figures which are finely detailed with hand engraving and separated with bands of foliate decoration which has been similarly worked. This small container would have been used on a dressing table, most likely for studs of cufflinks. It is in good original condition with some original minor manufacturing imperfections. Indian, circa 1900
Height 9cm x width 7.5cm x depth 7.5
