Description

This is a beautiful Antique Sterling Silver Bowl or Dish from the early 1900s. It would be perfect for storing sweets or small items in. It comes with a lovely green presentation bag so it would be a great gift. It was made by Mark & Cohen and it was Hallmarked in 1906. The Hallmarks are near the rim of the bowl. It has a pretty elegant pattern around the rim and a lovely pierced pattern around the sides. It has a solid Silver base. It's in good condition. There is tarnish in the pattern to the underside of the bowl and a few light dints to the base. It weighs 53.6g. The diameter from the edge of the rim is 12.7cm (4 7/8 inches). The depth is approx 2.8cm (1 1/8 inches).

Internal Ref: 1906 Silver bon bon dish
