Description

William IV mahogany side table This William IV mahogany side table was made in a top cabinetmakers workshop using top grade mahogany that was available at that time. Cabinetmakers were able to choose fantastic hard and dense timber that is not available now. The table is fitted with 3 drawers each with brass lions' head ring handles. It stands on end supports with a shaped outline and a pierced diamond motif, the stretchers joining the supports have a double diamond pierced design that matches the end supports. The William IV mahogany side table stands on wonderful carved paw feet. The feet give this a good grand feel but are not overpowering. This side-table can be used in a host of ways as well as places around your home.
