Description

Vivacious pair of antique wall pockets, modelled as scrolling cornucopias emblazoned with relief moulded face masks wearing feathered caps and foliate garlands swagged between an eagle's head to one and ram's head to the other. The rims are enriched with laced bands of golden gilt. Marked to Volkstedt porcelain manufactory, and fashioned under the purview of Triebner Ens & Eckert, the founders of the factory.. Known as the Aelteste Volkstedter Porzellanmanufaktur, the "Oldest Volkstedt Porcelain Manufactory", this was the first porcelain manufactory in Thuringia, Germany, originating in the 1760s. These pieces date to the 19th century. Excellent antique condition, some minor wear commensurate with age. Please carefully regard all photos. Both are 20 cm in height and 16 cm in width 484 g and 442 g respectively. Items will be sent fully tracked and insured. Please note cost of shipping includes labour, packaging and postage.
