Description

A lovely example of an antique solid sterling silver teapot from the highly collectible silversmith, Hester Bateman, dating from the reign of George III. It is clearly hallmarked on the base for London 1788 with the all-important maker's mark Hester Bateman. There are also partial hallmarks inside the lid. The oval, faceted narrow body has an excellent bright cut engraved design of swagged drapes and flowers. The spout is also decorated with trailing foliate designs. The ebonised wooden handle is well shaped and carved. The hinged lid rises to a dome decorated with a bright cut surround and surmounted by a fabulous pineapple finial. There are different initials on each oval cartouche. Dimensions: Weight: 509g Height: 16cm Width: 29cm Depth: 11cm. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
